Casey Kearney is a fresh take on the country music scene. Her personal songs effortlessly convey both the sweetness of a Southern belle and the steel backbone of a strong country woman with a little touch of rock and grit. Her music ranges from slow heartfelt ballads to upbeat crowd favorites and playful melodies. Her sound is a great representation of vibrant women everywhere.

Casey was born and raised in the Florida panhandle, where she still resides with her husband of 20 years and her 3 children who are currently homeschooled and active in the local junior rodeo circuit.

Music was not something she saw herself pursuing as a young girl. Casey started to discover a passion for singing, songwriting and learning to play instruments while balancing her family life and growing babies. Through time she has grown and developed her unique voice and creative sound to become a mature, natural performer with contagious energy. She now plays venues all over the country and maintains a regular gig schedule in the south east region.

A new full album of original music is in production and will release in 2020. "Better Days" was the first single released. It was featured as part of the "On The Horizon" show on Sirius Xm - The Highway and has received local and national radio play.

Throughout her career Casey has played events all over the country including stages in Las Vegas for the National Finals Rodeo. She was invited to perform our National Anthem for the Major League Baseball team the Atlanta Braves. She has played her original music at the legendary Bluebird Cafe in Nashville, TN. Played Texas Country Tours including Zapp Hall (Cody Johnson, Kacey Musgraves, Kimberly Dunn.) Casey has shared the bill with acts such as Gregg Allman, Justin Moore, Joe Diffie, Brandi Carlile, Jason Isbell, Jeffery Steele, Tanya Tucker, Susie Mcentire, Runaway June and more. Notable events such as the 30A Songwriters Festival, Panama City Songwriters Festival, Mullet Festival, Mattie Kelly Concert Series, Alys Beach, Baytowne Village Concert Series, and so many more.

As a solo artist Casey kept a full schedule, but in 2019 invited a few of her long time friends and musicians to join her on stage. The Casey Kearney Band was formed and has since traveled hundreds of miles, playing parties, festivals, concert, and corporate events.

“Faster” was the title track on her debut EP of original music, recorded in Nashville with award winning producer, Doug Kahan and top musicians who have been featured on albums and tours with artists such as Blake Shelton, Reba McEntire, Tim McGraw and Dustin Lynch to name just a few. Songs from her debut EP have been featured on several mainstream stations and are currently played on indie stations all over the country. Her personality shines through the catchy lyrics and the quality of musicianship is evident.

To display her unique vocal diversity Casey released “Somebody’s Favorite Song” a full album of cover songs ranging from current pop/rock songs to classic country. ACM Winner and hit songwriter Karen Staley wrote about the album “Her versatile voice, the elegant pared down production that allow her & the songs to shine along with the undeniable, authentic, respectful treatment with which she interpreted each song is impressive, a great voice singing timeless songs is always a winner.”

850 Entertainment had more to say about the release “Local songbird Kearney has done something that few locals have ever sought to accomplish and has done it in a skillful manner she’s released an album of cover tunes. From most-requested to those that hold personal meaning to Kearney, she tackles much more than country standards here. With sterling production and out-of-the-box instrumentation, it’s more than an album of covers it’s a fantastic vehicle to showcase Kearney’s enviable vocal range.”

Casey was named “Best Country Artist” by Beachcomber Magazine at the 2018 Beachcomber Music Awards X.

The 30A Songwriters Festival selected Casey to perform in 2019 and 2020. This festival is one of the most prestigious in the country and draws the best writers and artists in the business.

“Felicity” is an inspirational children’s book written by Casey and her daughter Annabelle to encourage young girls to express their creativity and colorful personalities.

Casey is the founder and president of the non-profit organization "Bands of 30A" which has raised over $100,000 for various charities through community concerts featuring local bands.
